Gracewood Fellowship hold first service at new Gracewood

After almost thirty years of meeting for Sunday services within the independent living units on Roebuck Drive, on Sunday 6 September the Gracewood Baptist Fellowship met for the first time in the beautiful activity room of the new Gracewood in Salter Point.

The new Gracewood brings together the residents of the Leslie A. Watson nursing home and Gracewood hostel and houses 110 ensuite rooms for low and high care residents.

Gracewood's Chaplain, Roland Maxwell, takes two services a month with guest speakers taking the service on the remaining Sundays.

The theme of the first service was "The Lord is my light and my salvation – whom shall I fear?" (Psalm 27:1)

The congregation includes residents from the independent living units and occasionally some visitors.

Sunday services start at 10.30am and everyone is welcome to attend.

Ends
